A 次の英文を読んで、後の各問いに答えなさい。

When Janette was very little, a famous ballet company came to her town. She was amazed by the grace of the ballet dancers. From ① that day, Janette decided ② to become a ballet dancer.

“Mommy, do you think I can be a ballet dancer when I grow up?” Janette asked her mother after the performance.

“Of course you can. But it takes a lot of hard work and practice ③ to succeed. It won't be easy, but if that's your dream, ④ you () never give up!” Janette's mother said.

“⑤ I won't!” Janette said.

When Janette grew older, she took the train to New York City for the audition. When it was her turn to perform for the audition, she performed her favorite dance as well as she could. When she finished, she turned to the director. She was excited to hear what he thought about it.

“Hmm..., ⑥ that wasn't good enough,” the director said.

⑦ With tears in her eyes, Janette ran from the room. When she got back to her house, she thought about throwing her ballet shoes into the trash. Then she changed her mind.

“No, I'm not going to let that get me down. I know I'm good enough. I can do it. I'll prove that director wrong someday!” she said to herself.

In New York City, the ballet scene was very difficult. She continued to go to auditions, but she never got called back. It wasn't easy to keep going.

After a year of failures, she finally got a part in a professional company. Her role was only as a background dancer. The senior dancers looked down on her. They would make fun of her and tell her she was no good.

After practice, she often came home and cried. The only thing she had ever wanted to do was dance! When she thought about giving up, she remembered the day of her first audition. She remembered how bad she felt after that. But she also remembered her promise not to give up.

She got a leading role in a major show. She put everything she had into the performance. As the audience was clapping at the end of the show, ⑧ tears came to Janette's eyes. It was ⑨ wonderful feeling in the world.

Then, through her tears, Janette saw a familiar face in the crowd. The famous director that rejected her all those years ago. After the show, the director was waiting for her outside the stage door. As she came out, he stopped her.

"Janette, I have never seen that role performed so well. You have become a great ballet dancer," he said.

Janette was surprised. ⑩ 彼女は何を言ったらよいか分からなかった。

"I've been following you ever since you left that audition all those years ago. You had such talent and grace in your audition. But, I could also see that you weren't ready. Things had come too easy to you. You weren't tested. And because of that, you were missing the most important thing that a ballet dancer needs. You were missing the will to never give up. I'm glad you were able to find that. I hope you will audition for me in the future."

With that, the director walked away. Janette couldn't find anything ⑪ to say. The tears in her eyes were tears of joy.

Look closely at the map. In the east, there is an island. But my treasure box is not there. You must not go there because a big bear lives there. In the north, you can see an old lighthouse. Around there, you can't find anything important.

You need to start at the port. You'll see some ships there. Go straight and turn left at the big road. You'll see a pond on your right side. Don't go too far because there is a cave with many snakes inside. The key to my treasure box is in a small house by the pond. Take the key and head north.
